

Once upon a time, there lived a kind knight called Piggy Knight. He looked like a pig but he was actually a horse. He was as brave as a bear. One day, the weather was stunning, so Piggy went for a walk. Suddenly, he heard a pitchy high voice calling out, 'Help! Help me!' Piggy looked up and saw Princess Kelly was trapped in the Slimstle, where a big disgusting slimy monster lived. Since Piggy was very brave, he decided to rescue Princess Kelly.

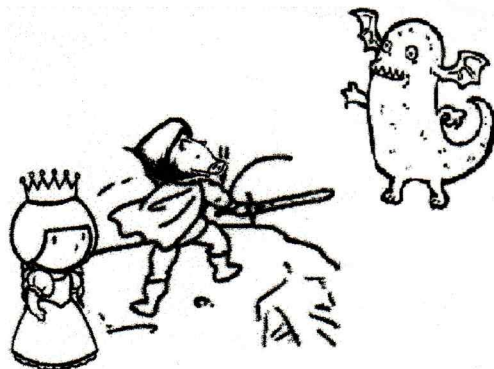

On the way, Piggy Knight bumped into a giant toad who was eating flies. The toad asked, 'Ah mate, you looked worried! What's up?' Piggy told the toad about Princess Kelly. The toad answered, 'Ah ha! No problem! There is a powerful sword which was embedded in a rock. Not everyone can get it. Only people with a kind heart can pull it out. I trust ya, mate! It's at the bottom of Mermaid Lake. Good luck!' After Piggy thanked the toad, he headed toward the Mermaid Lake.

Piggy Knight got to the Mermaid Lake. He frowned because the lake was deep and he couldn't reach for the powerful sword. Suddenly, an insane idea struck him, 'Maybe if I drink all of the water, I can get there and take the sword!' Since Piggy walked a lot, he was very thirsty. He started to drink the Mermaid Lake's water and unexpectedly, he could drink all of the water in less than one minute! He was thrilled and surprised, thinking he could get the sword soon. He walked through the empty lake and got in front of the magical rock.

Piggy Knight got his hand on the magical sword and with all his might, he pulled out the sword successfully. He could feel the power of the sword. Piggy was not scared of the slimy monster anymore. He was confident to beat it. He stood on the rock and shouted, 'I'm not scared of you! Slimy monster!' Then, he laughed loudly and went to the Slimstle.

When Piggy arrived at the Slimstle, the first thing he saw was the Slime Monster holding Princess Kelly's hand with an awkward smile. He said with a soft voice, 'Hey Kelly, let's go on a tea party!' Princess Kelly was terrified and she shivered. Suddenly, Piggy came out of nowhere and yelled, 'Be gone, Slimy Beast!' He rushed to the monster and left the frightened princess alone. Piggy took out his powerful sword and fought with the Slime Monster. Unfortunately, the Slime Monster knew how to use magic and hit Piggy hard on the floor. The Slime Monster shouted proudly, 'You're not my opponent! Ugly pig!' Although Piggy's head started to bleed, he didn't give up. He stabbed the ugly monster on the chest with all his strength. The cruel monster finally collapsed.

Finally, the Slime Monster died. The grass and flowers began to regrow stunningly. The castle became "Queen Kelly & King Piggy's Castle". Yes, you guessed it right. They became a couple after the big war between Piggy and the Slime Monster. On their wedding day, they were so excited. Everyone wished them good luck. After the wedding, Piggy thought to himself, 'If I gave up that day, I wouldn't be here!' Piggy learnt not to give up when facing problems or challenges. He got back to the castle with Kelly with a light smile on his face.

Once upon a time, there lived a man called Sany. He looked like a lazy pig, but he was as brave as a bear. One day, the weather was beautiful. Sany felt bored, so he went strolling. While he was strolling, he heard someone shouting, 'Help! Help!' He found that Princess Kelly was trapped in a castle where a monster lived. Sany decided to rescue Princess Kelly.

Sany knew the monster was ferocious. He knew he couldn't kill the monster by himself. Therefore, he went back to his house to seek help. On the way, Sany bumped into a giant frog. The frog asked him, 'You look worried. What happened?' 'I am going to rescue Princess Kelly who is trapped in a castle where a horrifying monster lives,' answered Sany. This frog suggested, 'You can go to a lake where you can find a powerful sword. The sword is embedded in a stone at the bottom of the lake. I think it can help you.' Sany asked him, 'Are you going to help me?' Suddenly, the giant frog disappeared. Sany was surprised to learn that the frog came from the sky. Sany promised himself that he must rescue Princess Kelly. Therefore, he went on his journey.

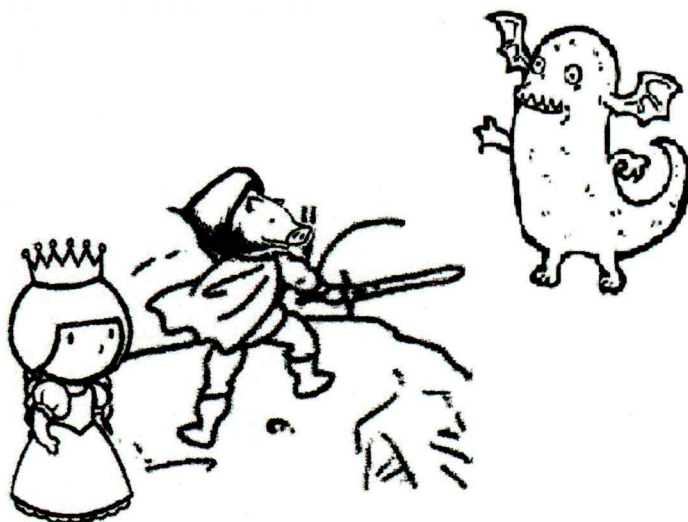

When Sany arrived at the lake, a trouble came. The water was so deep that he couldn't get the sword. He thought he could swim to the sword but there was a big crocodile there. He was confused. He thought and thought until night. He felt tired, so he went to bed. In Sany's dream, the giant frog appeared again. The frog told him to drink all of the water and kill the crocodile to take sword. Next morning, Sany tried what the frog said. However, the lake had too much water. Suddenly, a thought struck him. He thought he could borrow a boat and a sword for emergency from the fisherman. Sany went back to the lake and rowed the boat to the middle of the lake.

Finally, Sany made his way to the middle of the lake. He pulled the sword with all his might. Unfortunately, the sword broke because he pulled too hard. Therefore, he thought the real sword was in the crocodile's stomach. He tried to kill the crocodile, but in vain. Therefore, he called his friend to help him. An hour later, Sany friends and Sany arrived at the lake. They thought together. They got hurt but they killed the crocodile. Therefore, Sany's friends went to the hospital. Sany's friends asked Sany, 'Why don't you stay here with us?' Sany answered, 'I promised myself to rescue Princess Kelly. 'Sany took the sword that he got from the crocodile's stomach. He felt energized and confident. He was ready for the final battle.

Sany rushed to the castle as fast as light. He saw the ugly monster. It was as ugly as a toad. It had a pair of wings. It was very small. The monster looked slimy, but it was rough. Princess Kelly was scared, so she hid immediately. Sany said, 'Get out of this castle now!' 'No, I won't,' shouted the monster. Sany was angry, so he said this to the monster in anger, 'Get out of here! This is the last chance!' The monster was angry, too. Therefore, it decided to eat the Princess first. However, he didn't know where the princess was, so he fought with Sany.

The monster breathed fire from his mouth. Sany dodged the attack immediately. He got power from the fisherman's sword. Then, he rushed to the monster. The monster was too slow. Therefore, Sany won the victory. Princess Kelly came from nowhere and embraced Sany. She said, 'You are my savior! Thank you very much!' Sany was shy, so he replied, 'Nothing. This is my duty to protect people in danger.' Princess Kelly and Sany fell in love, so they decided to marry. Piggy Knight learnt that he shouldn't give up in difficult situations.

Once upon a time, there lived a man called Piggy Knight. Since he looked like a pig, everyone called him Piggy Knight. One day, the weather was beautiful, so he went for a walk. Suddenly, he heard someone shouting, 'Help! Help!' The cry for help came from the castle. He looked at the castle and saw Princess Kelly trapped inside the castle. She was kidnapped by a monster. Therefore, Piggy Knight decided to rescue Princess Kelly.

On the way to the castle, Piggy Knight suddenly bumped into an ugly frog. The frog suddenly called him, 'Hey! Don't go away! I have magic! I can tell what you are thinking. Umm... You want to rescue Princess Kelly, right?' 'Yes. Can you help me?' replied Piggy Knight. The frog said, 'Of course! You look brave! I tell you a secret. At the bottom of a lake, I hid a powerful sword in a colorful stone. The lake is on that hill.' Then, the frog used his hand to point to that hill and said, 'Good boy! Go to rescue the princess. After that, you will have all you want.' Suddenly, the frog disappeared into thin air.

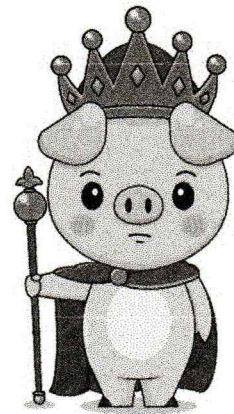

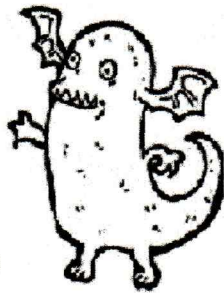

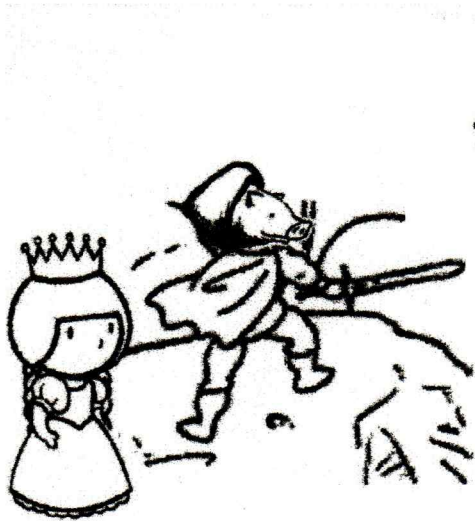

When Piggy Knight arrived at the lake, he found that the water was very deep. He couldn't go to get the sword. He tried to drink all the water! When he was about to drink the water, he found that his legs were too short. He couldn't put his mouth into the water. Suddenly, the ugly giant frog came and said, 'I can help you to drink the water!' After that, he went to the lake and drank the water in one second! The frog said, 'Only a brave man can take away the sword.' Piggy Knight was thankful to the frog. Then, the frog disappeared again.

Piggy Knight went to the middle of the lake to take the sword. He was worried that he couldn't pull out the sword. He tried to pull. Luckily, he pulled the sword out easily. He was energized. Next, he went to the castle to rescue the princess.

Piggy Knight rushed to the castle to rescue Princess Kelly. When he arrived at the castle, the princess was scared and pointed to the monster. He consoled the princess and pointed the sword to the monster. The monster breathed fire from its mouth. Piggy managed to dodge it immediately. Then, he picked the sword out and stabbed into the monster's belly. The monster died on the spot.

Finally, he rescued the princess successfully. The princess felt grateful. Suddenly, Piggy Knight took his piggy mask off. The princess was surprised that Piggy Knight was a handsome man! His real name was Peter. Peter said he loved her. Kelly was moved to tears. Kelly told Peter she wanted to marry him. They fell in love. They kissed. Peter returned to the castle with Princess Kelly.

In the end, Peter married Princess Kelly and lived with Princess Kelly happily. A few years later, the king died and Peter ascended the throne to become the new king. He finally understood what the frog said back then. He owned everything in the world. He learned that doing good deeds would be rewarded.
