The Horizon Ristorante

Last Saturday, I went to The Horizon Ristorante with my buddy, Jamie. It's a new hybrid restaurant in Tsim Sha Tsui. You can order food and dishes from all around the world!

The receptionist was pleasant and hospitable. He greeted and led us to a table for two overlooking the vibrant Victoria Harbour. The restaurant wasn't too crowded since the restaurant was humongous. People were chatting enthusiastically with their companions. There was relaxing music playing as the background, adding cheerfulness to the cozy atmosphere. The chefs diligently made stuff in the open kitchen which could be seen from the dining room. The ambience and service of The Horizon Ristorante set it apart from the normal restaurant.

The menu had a bunch of food items. Jammie and I ordered plenty of food, such as macarons and mango pudding for our dessert, sushi stack and boeuf bourguignon and soup dumplings for the main course, snack combo, Mexican bacon tacos for the starters and boba Jasmine tea for the drinks. We waited with anticipation. I like the soup dumplings the best. It was filled with savory hot pork. The pork was meltingly soft. Accompanied by the Jasmine tea, the deep flavor of the meat was amazingly brought out. This is what I call a 'real authentic Chinese dish'. There were also croissants, quiches and ramen noodles, but we had enough food, so we didn't order them. Overall, the food was deliciously prepared.

The staff was professional and accountable. The food was served fast. The bill finally amounted to a whopping $2,50! It was as expensive as a sofa. At the end of the day, The Horizon Ristorante is highly recommended to my family and friends, I will certainly go there and enjoy my meal again!

Yummy Yummy Restaurant

Last weekend, I went to Yummy Yummy Restaurant for dinner with my family. It is a fast food shop and is located in Tsuen Wan West.

I ordered a fruit tart and cheesecake for the dessert. I thought the food was delectable. I liked the fruit tart best since the fruit was fresh. I thought the staff was polite and helpful. The waiters always asked me, 'Do you need any help?' and I answered, 'It's like a glass of hot water, please.' The waiter replied, 'Sure! It will be ready shortly.' In a few minutes, the waiter gave me a glass of hot water and she said politely to me, 'Here is your hot water, madam. Be careful, it is hot!' I also think the environment was relaxing and comfortable because they played some relaxing music and it was not too crowded. It was better than what we expected. The price was a good deal and they always gave discounts to the customers, too!

Here are the stars that I give to the restaurant:

The food	:	5/5 very good
The price	:	1/5 very low
The staff	:	5/5 very good
The environment	:	5/5 very good

The Tower of Meal

Last Sunday, I went to a restaurant called 'The Tower of Meal' for dinner with my parents. The name is quite creative. It is an Italian restaurant and located in Mongkok. It is newly opened, too. I couldn't wait to try their food!

For the starter, we ordered some garlic bread and mushroom soup. For the main course, we ordered cheese pasta, seafood pasta and a meatball pizza. We also ordered a vanilla ice cream and two tower puddings. The mushroom soup was very creamy and rich. However, the meatballs in the pizza were a bit uncooked. I hope the chefs can do better next time. Most of the food was marvelous and crispy. Among the food, I liked the puddings best since they looked lovely and tasted delectable. They matched with the name of the restaurant. The waitress was courteous and efficient. She recommended some of today's specials to us. She served the food quickly. The environment was very pleasant with relaxing violin music. We ate our food enjoyably. The price was affordable.

We had a miraculous night there. We would definitely have a meal there again. The Tower of Meal is such a wonderful restaurant. I strongly suggest you try this amazing restaurant. It is a perfect place for dining out!

Taiwan Kitchen

I went to Taiwan Kitchen for dinner with my family yesterday. It is a Taiwanese restaurant located at Panda Hotel in Tsuen Wan.

We ordered a chicken salad for a starter, spicy and sour noodles with dumplings for the main course, pearl milk tea for the drink and strawberry ice cream for dessert. The food was delicious and yummy. I liked the main course best since I enjoy eating spicy food. Additionally, the staff was nice and helpful. The waitress was friendly and polite. Moreover, the environment was comfortable and relaxing. Furthermore, the price was reasonable.

We had a pleasant night there. We look forward to going to Taiwan Kitchen again.
