A Traffic Accident

Last Saturday, when Hannah and her family were on their way to visit her grandparents, they had a traffic accident.

When they were on the way to Hannah's grandparents' house, the sky started to rain and the road was very wet.

The rain got heavier and heavier. Suddenly, a landslide made the mud and rock fall from the side of the hill. The mud and rock made them trapped in their car. Hannah said, 'Oh no!' Therefore, they called the police. When the ambulance and the firefighters arrived, some firefighters tried to rescue them.

When they finished rescuing them, Hannah and her parents were taken to the hospital. Hannah was worried about her parents.

At last, Hannah and her parents were safe. They learnt that before they go out, they must check the weather first.
